Winter wonderland & SPA

Day 1 Munich

Travel from Munich to Neuschwanstein. Upon arrival, visit the famous Neuschwanstein castle, built by the notorious Ludwig II, the mad king of Bavaria. Then continue to Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Germany's winter sports capital and site of the 1936 winter Olympics. Accommodation at the Atlas Grand Hotel*.

Day 2 Garmisch-Partenkirchen - Zugspitze - Garmisch-Partenkirchen

Today you have the option of skiing the best slopes in the region or enjoying an excursion to Germany's highest mountain, Zugspitze (2.962 m). In the afternoon, a horse-drawn sleigh ride awaits: wrap yourself in cozy lambskin blankets and take a magnificent ride through the snowy meadows. Accommodation at the Atlas Grand Hotel*.

Day 3 Garmisch-Partenkirchen - Salzburg - Zell am See

The morning, continue to the city of Salzburg in Austria, the birthplace of composer Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. Upon arrival, visit the Mirabell gardens, the fortress of Salzburg with its magnificent views, the Cathedral and Getreidegasse. Then transfer to your Hotel SPA in Zell am See, a 1,5 hour drive from Salzburg. Accommodation at the Grand Hotel Zell am See**.

Day 4-5 Zell am See

Relax for a few days with a stay at a 5-star resort set amidst stunning alpine scenery and treat yourself to wonderful spa sessions. The hotel offers a full service SPA, beauty treatments and gourmet meals. You may also spend these days skiing on the fantastic nearby slopes, 3.000 m above sea level, with great runs for skiers and snowboarders. You may also go ice-skating on picturesque Lake Zell or take a sleigh ride through one of Austria's most scenic regions. Accommodation at the Grand Hotel Zell am See *****.

Day 6 Zell am See - Munich

Transfer from Zell am See to Munich Airport.
