The Pearls of the North

- ★ Medieval Hanseatic cities in northern Germany
- ★ Discover UNESCO World Heritage - like the Holstentor in Lübeck and the Schwerin Castle
- ★ The white cliffs of Rügen island - a natural highlight

1 Hamburg
Upon arrival transfer to your hotel. The tour begins with a panoramic city tour. The city is internationally known for its elegant boulevards, the port, which is the second largest in Europe and the famous neighborhood of St. Pauli.

2 Hamburg - Bremen - Hamburg
Today you are going to visit the hanseatic city of Bremen, which is the cradle of the fairy tale from the Brothers Grimm "The Bremen Town Musicians". The old town of the city offers many attractions such as the Cathedral, the "Böttcherstrasse" street as well as the market square. The statue of Roland has been declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Another interesting place to visit is the neighborhood of Schnoor, the oldest area of Bremen. In the afternoon we travel back to Hamburg.

3 Hamburg - Lübeck - Schwerin
After breakfast travel to Lübeck that has more than 1000 years of history. Lübeck was once one of the most important centers of the Hanseatic League and one of the richest cities in the Middle Ages. Its old town is surrounded by water and was declared UNESCO World Heritage Site. Monuments like the Holstentor (Holsten Gate) standing at the entrance of the old town is a symbol and stands for the beautiful image of the city. In the afternoon continue to Schwerin, a city that is characterized for its richness in water and forests, abundance of cultural treasures and a fascinating intact old town.

4 Schwerin - Wismar - Bad Doberan - Rostock
In the morning visit the wonderful Schwerin Castle, located on an island in the center of town. Afterwards continue to Wismar, situated on the shores of the Baltic Sea. It is famous for its port, historical monuments with the typical red-brick gothic style and the great hospitality of its locals. The day continues to Rostock with a short stop in Bad Doberan.

ated on the shores of the Baltic Sea. It is famous for its port, historical monuments with the typical red-brick gothic style and the great hospitality of its locals. The day continues to Rostock with a short stop in Bad Doberan.

5 Rostock - Stralsund - Rügen
Rostock, a Hanseatic city for more than 800 years that still preserves its ancient charm. Today it offers multiple cultural aspects along with the seaside resort of Warnemünde. The architecture of the city highlights the historical houses showing facades from different periods: gothic, renaissance and baroque. Afterwards continue to Stralsund. While going through the medieval alleys of the city you still can feel the "Seefahrtsromantik". Leaving Stralsund we cross one of the longest bridges in Germany in order to reach the Rügen Island. It is famous for its stunning white cliffs that you are going to discover during a boat tour.

6 Rügen - Güstrow - Berlin
On the way to Berlin we stop in the lovely city of Güstrow. The historic center impresses with its half-timbered houses made of gothic brick, with magnificent buildings that date back to renaissance times and the neoclassic town hall.

7 Berlin
In the morning visit Berlin and get to know its main attractions like the "Kurfürstendamm, the Brandenburg Gate and Postdam square.
